9. VERBAL REPORT FROM CHIEF

- Continuing Recruiting for: Constable for April; S/Csts; Cadets. Time consuming process, great deal of work, led by Marci, Rod, Sgt. Beattie
- Attended OACP Labour Conference with Rod
Many organizations continue to struggle with staffing issues related to people off on WSIB
Met the new OOIPRD director
Focused on reform
- early resolutions, informal resolutions, meeting timelines which presently they only meet about 10% of the time.
- Attended OACP Board of Directors Mtg
- Attended OACP Zone Mtg last week in Oakville
- NG911 – as you know there is a significant impact on our budget in 2020 and 2021 to meet the CRTC requirements to continue operating as a Primary 911 Centre
There has been some discussion with the Ministry to impose a levy fee to recoup costs with the revenue generated going back to the police services operating a Primary PSAP
- Court Security Funding – 4% reduction in our court security funding from the province in 2020 when our costs continue to rise
Call on the Ministry for sustainable funding into the future at a true cost recovery basis right now it is approximately 60%
- Mheart Funding – still awaiting response on our funding application submitted to both the LHIN and the Ontario Health Team
Met with Ernie Hardeman last week and arranging a meeting for next week with the Ontario Health Team lead for our area

- Polar Plunge – March 9th 3pm-5pm – in partnership with Fanshawe College to raise funds for Special Olympics
- Had our first Advisory Meeting of the Community Safety and Well Being Plan earlier today
- March Past Graduation for our 4 recruits at OPC will be on April 1st at 1pm. If there are any board members planning to attend, please let me know so I can advise OPC on numbers.
